

DIY Plate meter
Its basic, its fully manual, but it works and is cheap.

Do check calibration with a swardstick and clipboard (gentle pressure). Do this by checking the reading on the swardstick is the same as the reading on the platemeter on the same bit of pasture. Try a couple of different height areas. Don't push the plate meter down hard, let it rest on the grass.